BIO

I am blessed to do what I love and I wake up excited every day to have an impact on my team and my clients. I have added tremendous value to nearly every organization I have worked with.

As the president and founding partner, I am focused on building the community culture and strategy for the C-Suite family of companies. C-Suite brings together accomplished entrepreneurs who strive to make an impact on companies through growth, performance, and succession. We are more than advisors—we stay involved throughout the entire process to help our clients ring the bell of success.
